Dedication

"It is not always what happens to men that motivates them, but what they fear may happen to them."
P. P. Hill

An interest in life is an interest in men; in those who did yesterday, and in those who do today. It is a study of what motivated man in the past, and it is a participation in the motivation of man in the present.

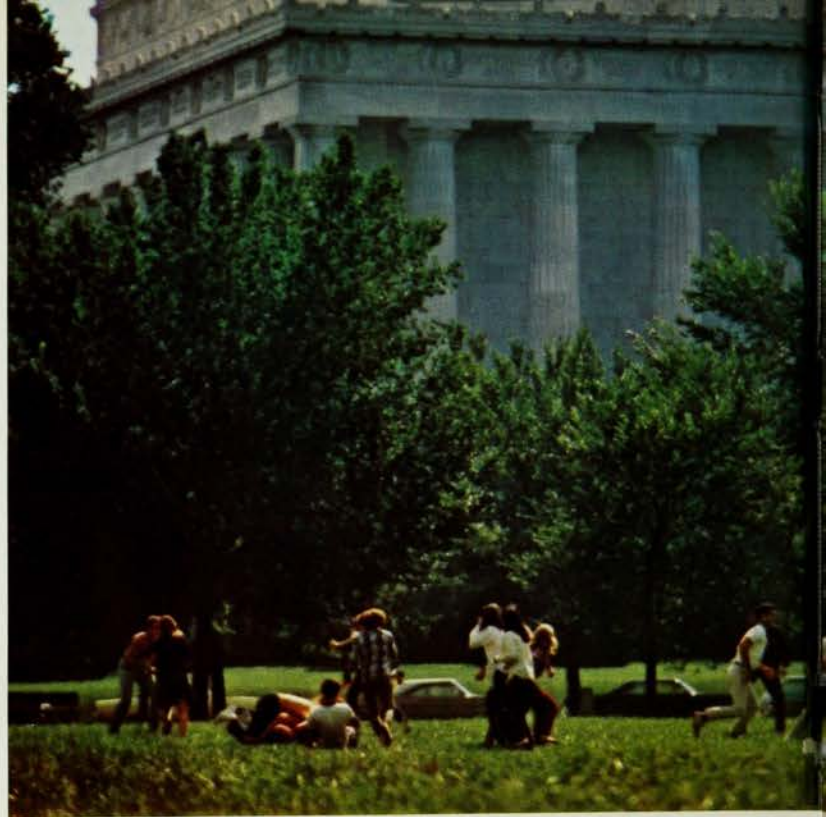

Dr. Peter P. Hill, Associate Professor of History at The George Washington University, personifies this interest in life, while daily instilling it into his students. By sharing his enthusiasm and insight with his class, Dr. Hill has put a human element back into history. And by relating history to the present, he has created a deeper understanding and appreciation of that which makes man act.

Not only an eminent scholar of our heritage, not only a dynamic professor of our history, Dr. Hill is also a motivator and participator in our campus life. Through his efforts each of us has learned, and learned to enrich himself.

We, the staff of the Cherry Tree, representing the class of 1968, are therefore honored to dedicate these, our efforts, to him.

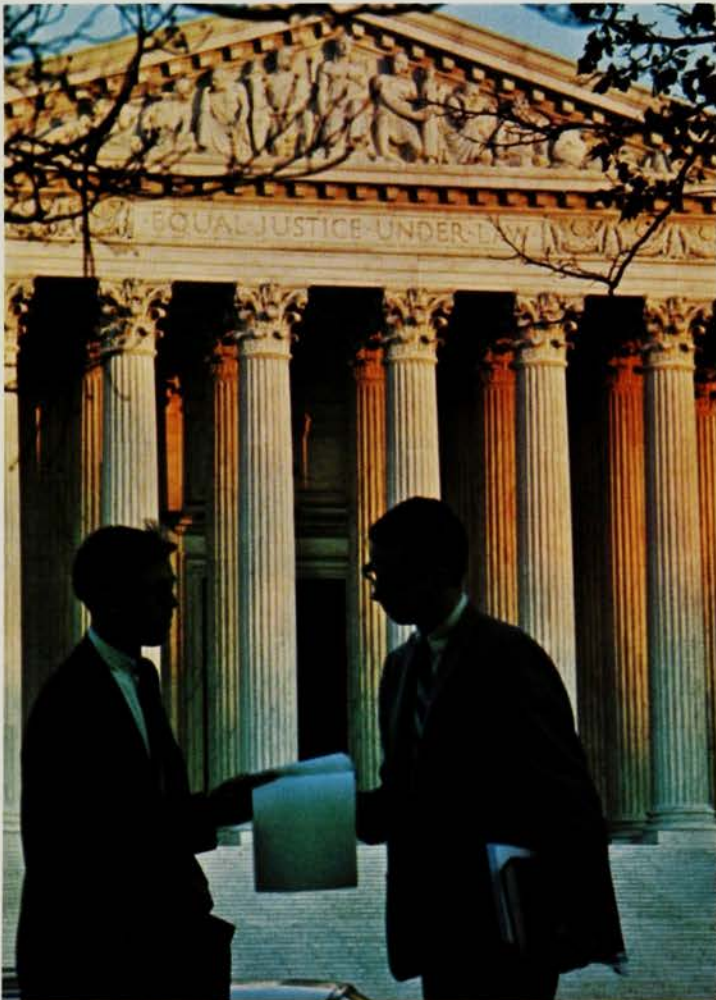

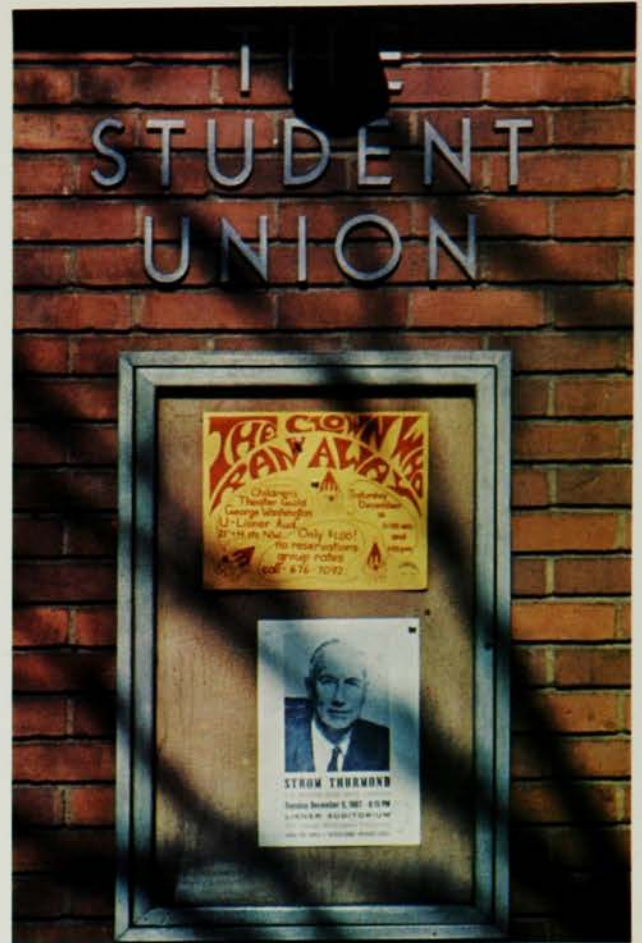

Cherry trees and civic heart
Memories in stone and mind
Crossroads of the then and now

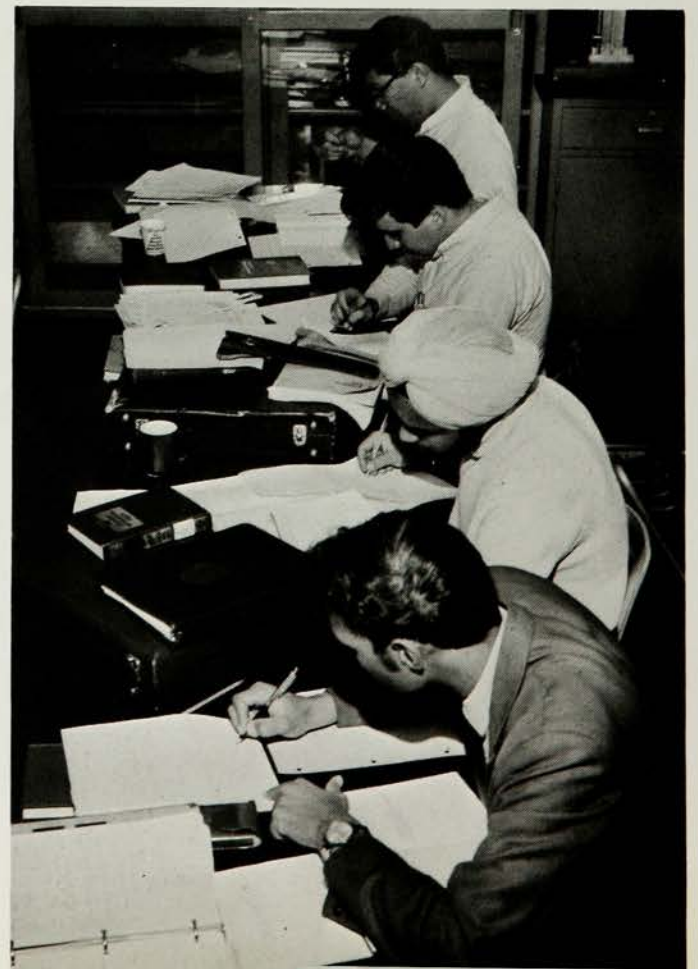

Life in laughs
and paradox

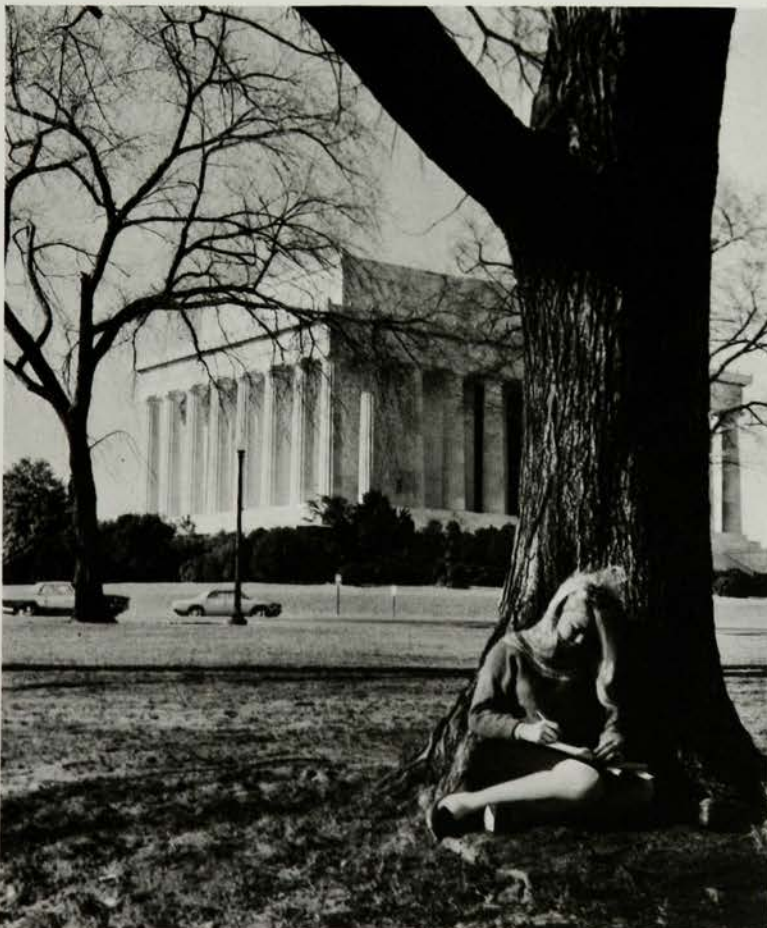

Books and busts
 Pages, elbows, pens, and notes
 Cokes and couches, cards and crowds
 Sirens, Slaters, signs . . .

Giving, gaining, growing, We Loving, learning. Living.

Administration and Academics

President Lloyd H. Elliott

Challenging students to "take the first step toward a cleaner world and a more peaceful society," President Elliott is leading the University to greater expansion and academic excellence. In promoting what he labels the "emerging stature" of the George Washington University, he has cooperated with and sought advice from students and faculty alike in a dedicated effort to make those decisions which will best benefit the University community. The building program which he initiated upon his arrival in 1965 is now rapidly materializing and the new 8 million dollar Student Center which he proposed is under construction and scheduled to be completed in the fall of 1970.

Office of Alumni Relations

The General Alumni Association endeavors to deepen the interest and sense of participation on the part of alumni in the affairs of University. It believes, too, that its assignment begins while alumni are still enrolled as students. In serving these ends, the Association, which draws its staff support from the University's Office of Alumni Relations, feels that it must meet alumni on their terms — social and intellectual — and in their hometowns as well as on the campus. The G.A.A. encourages participation in Homecoming and involvement with students, i.e., in helping to create class identity or even in so pedestrian a way as selling hot dogs at Martha's Marathon.

Poetry reading at the Pit

Potomac

Potomac is the literary-art review of George Washington. Appearing twice yearly, the magazine contains outstanding student contributions in the fields of poetry, prose, art, and photography. This year, Potomac sponsored a series of poetry readings with the intent of offering an opportunity for students to display their literary talents other than through print. Potomac also sponsors the Contemporary Poetry Library in room 404 of the library. Such poets as Roethke, Dickey, and Wilbur are represented in the collection. This is another attempt on the part of the Potomac to acquaint students with what is happening in literature today.

Student Council

This year the Student Council became a more powerful and vital force in University life than ever before. Under the direction of President Robin Kaye, the Council sought to involve the students in all aspects of the workings of the University. The Council attempted to increase student power and to increase and facilitate student relations with the faculty and the administration.

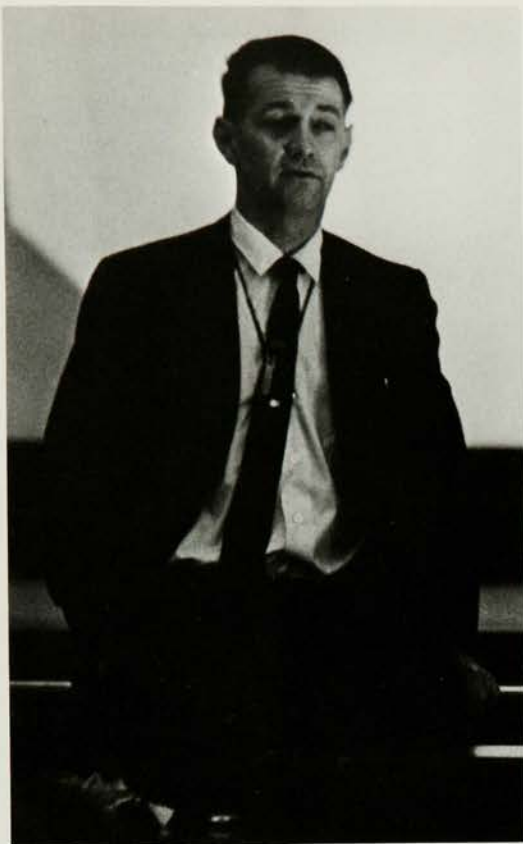

The Student Council faced a number of controversial issues, including membership in the National Student Association and the Selective Service's policies on student demonstrations against United States policy in Viet Nam.

Committee on Student Life

The Committee on Student Life is composed of thirteen members — six faculty members, six students, and the Student Activities Director. The function of the Student Life Committee is both judicial and advisory. It has the power to review and reverse "any act of the Student Council or of any group engaged in extracurricular activities." The committee makes recommendations to the Student Council and to the President of the University. Also, the committee has the power to nominate for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The Student Life Committee "acts only when it believes that a vital interest of the University has been overlooked." This year, the continued existence of the committee came into question, with the possibility that it might be dissolved and replaced by another type of organization such as a student court.

The Engineering Council's purpose is to provide a liaison between the student body of the School of Engineering and Applied Science and the rest of the University. The Council sponsors the publication of the Mecheleciv magazine, assumes financial and administrative responsibility for the Davis-Hodgkins House, and sponsors general engineering student activities.

University Players

The George Washington University Players presented a season of major productions during 1967-68 which ranged from "Thurber Carnival" at Homecoming and "The Three Cuckolds" in the Spring to two Childrens' Theater productions. These were shown at Lisner Auditorium, as in past years, and were a joint effort of students and faculty.

This year, the Players initiated a new program, entirely student run, to allow students to experiment in directing, acting, and design. The Experimental Theater made its home in Studio A in Lisner and also travelled to the Agora and to other area schools. Among the productions presented this year were "Spoon River Anthology," "Long Christmas Dinner," "No Exit," and "In White America."

The Players' major goal this year has been to see the Experimental Theater firmly established and to create an atmosphere in which there is freedom to innovate, to fail, and to discover new ways of putting a play together. Since the number and kinds of productions possible on the Lisner stage are limited, the Experimental Theater serves the important function of providing open opportunities in theater during the entire year.

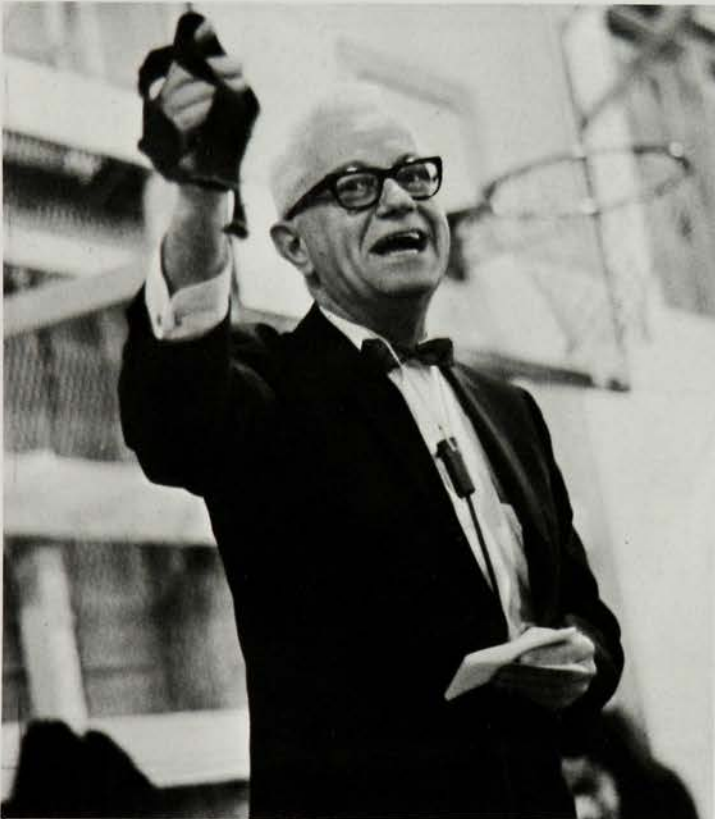

Executive Board: Wendy Blum, Mel Mackler, President, Gail Baldi.

The Agora Coffee House fills the students' need for a friendly, informal spot to meet with faculty members and other students. Several changes were made this year under the management of student managers Paul Greenberg and Lou Bovidi. The menu was enlarged to include a wider selection of food and drink. Jazz bands, folksinging, guitar playing, piano concerts, or poetry readings are featured on Friday and Saturday nights.

The Enosinian Debate Society took part in debate tournaments all over the country this year. Its debate team won fifteen tournaments. Among these were tournaments held at Johns Hopkins, Loyola, Wake Forest, St. Anselms, and Northern Illinois. The topic for discussion this year was: "The federal government should guarantee a minimum annual cash income to all citizens."

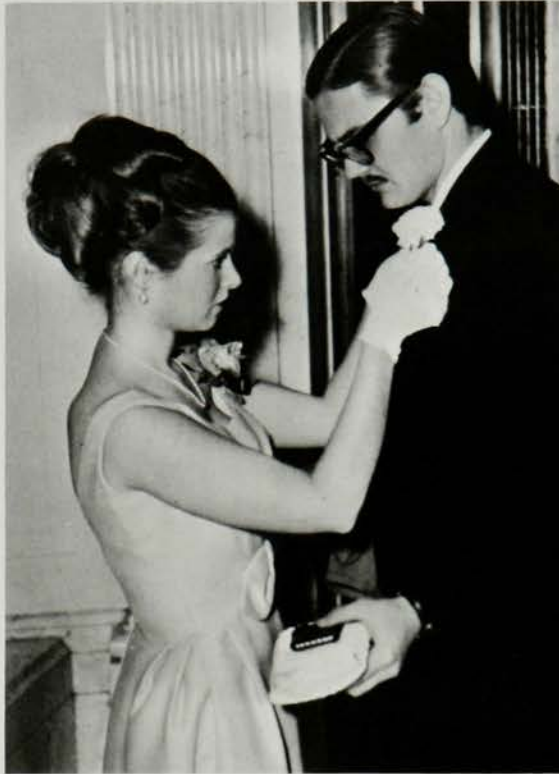

The Society hosted a High School Discussion Conference in the Fall and the High School Debate Tournament in the Spring. In April, GW hosted the National Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha Debate Tournament with over 150 schools attending. Greg Millard, Carolyn Smith, Isa Natovitz, Steve Remsberg, and Andy Mason were the GW members this year of Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha.

I.S.S.

This year the International Student Society became the largest organization on campus. The activities of the Society are aimed at social and cultural events of international interest. Some achievements that highlighted this year were receiving first prize at the Homecoming Fair, the annual Embassy Ball held this year at the Turkish Embassy, and International Student Night which filled Lisner Auditorium to near capacity. The Society also made efforts to sponsor an international dinner and to undertake charter flights to Europe for members. Notable speakers included H. F. Talat al Ghousein, Ambassador from Kuwait and Dr. Fayez Az-Sayegh. The interest of the Honorary President, Senator J. William Fulbright and Richard Hensman of the British Broadcasting Company was greatly appreciated.

The function of Big Sis and Old Men is to make the adjustment of incoming freshmen and transfer students to university life an easier one. This consists of giving aid and advice by way of summer correspondence, the Big Sis-Old Men luncheon plus the Old Men Smoker and the Big Sis Fashion Show for entertainment. Big Sis and Old Men help the new student in any possible way to give him a picture of life at GW.

Serve

SERVE has a two-fold purpose. It seeks "to help those in need and to instill in volunteers a rational understanding of and emotional concern for the problems of poverty." SERVE sponsors its own tutorial projects and also provides tutors for various community projects. Junior Village, the DC Jail, and D. C. General Hospital are among the places where SERVE volunteers work.

SBG's nominating convention, held last Winter.

Students for Better Government

Students for Better Government, the campus political party, took for its motto this year "Toward a Big League University in the Nation's Capitol." For the first time since SBG's founding in 1964, the party was active as both a political and service organization.

SBG began the year with the publication of The Little Sarah, a party newspaper, which received immediate campus acclaim. SBG campaigned for University withdrawal from the National Student Association and the holding of a referendum on the subject. The climax of the year came with the annual SBG convention which nominated candidates for the Student Council. With the theme "A Spirit of Leadership — a Program of Service," SBG fielded 23 candidates. Fifteen of them were elected, including the President, Vice-President, and Secretary of the Student Council.

Christian Science

This year the "Org" had a variety of activities which displayed an interest in bringing Christian Science into a more practical light. Mr. David K. Willis, correspondent for The Christian Science Monitor, visited GW to explain the role of the professional man with a basis of Christian Science.

A Thanksgiving service was given for the University at large—the first time that the group had worked on such a program for many years. In December, Mrs. Lenore D. Hanks from Portland, Oregon, visited campus to speak on "The New Morality." "Org" members have participated in planning the Inter-Faith Forum series, new at GW this year. A Christmas service for the University in cooperation with Holiday Seasons found The Christian Science Organization taking an active part.

A Spring reception familiarizing high school students with Organization work is an annual event. A table place placed in the Student Union offering pamphlets concerning Christian Science also has been a source of communication between Christian Science students and other students who are interested in learning more about the religion.

Executive Board: Michael Rawson, Treasurer, Lynne Pace, President, Diane Wexler, Secretary.

Hillel Foundation

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation serves the Jewish community on the G.W. campus. Its function is to give Jewish students a deepened understanding of their Jewish heritage, to strengthen their identification with Jewish life and the Jewish community, to serve as bearer and spokesman of the Jewish heritage in the academic community and to help enrich the personal life of the Jewish student as an individual.

Episcopal Student Association

This year, the Episcopal Student Association, under the direction of Rev. Sokoloff of St. John's Church, was involved in a variety of activities. Meetings were held weekly and a newsletter was sent out periodically to all Episcopalians on campus. Members helped with the Inter-Faith Forum and an interdenominational Christmas service held in Strong Hall. Also, contemporary play readings were held as a basis for discussion during Lent.

The ideals of Phi Beta Kappa, the oldest and most prestigious honor society in the country, are scholarship, high moral character and devotion to the philosophy of liberal education. The varied departments of Upper Columbian College nominated these seniors and juniors for their "intellectual capacity well employed." They were, in turn, elected into membership by the District of Columbia Alpha chapter.

Mortar Board is the national senior women's honorary at George Washington. Members are tapped in recognition of their outstanding achievement in scholarship, leadership and service to the University.

Mortar Board's activities on campus are numerous. In addition to sponsoring Tassels and selecting members of the Big Sis Board, Mortar Board also publishes a monthly newsletter to all campus organizations, co-sponsors Parents' Weekend with Omicron Delta Kappa, occasionally ushers at Lisner Auditorium, and holds a "meet the professors at lunch" series. During Homecoming, Mortar Board sponsored the "dinner for two" at Trader Vic's raffle.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa, a Junior-Senior men's national honorary, recognizes leadership of exceptional quality and versatility in all facets of college life, high scholastic achievement, and the contributions of outstanding students, and faculty and administration members to the University.

Omicron Delta Kappa works to serve the University in such activities as joint sponsorship of Parents' Weekend with Mortar Board.

Tassels

Tassels is the honorary service organization for sophomore women at George Washington University. It is sponsored by Mortar Board in the hope that outstanding sophomores will be encouraged to maintain high standards of scholarship, increase their participation in University activities, develop their leadership abilities, and establish friendships with other sophomore women.

ROW ONE: Susan Provisor, Barbara Kosar, Ronne Rogin, Adrienne Honig; ROW TWO: Faye Mervis, Laurel Milcoff—Projects Co-chairman, Judy Moer—Membership Chairman, Barbara Jeweler—President, Beth Mann—Secretary, Judy Ellstrom—Treasurer, Arlene Lehrer—Food Chairman; ROW THREE: Gayle Rosenthal, Susan Fields, Susan Wiener, Merrill Deming, Dodie Fait, Karen Radius, Rachelle Litwalk, Anne Kramer, Kay Ferrell, Sue Brown, Louise Berman, Doris Babb. Phi Eta Sigma

Phi Eta Sigma is an honor society with the purpose of encouraging and rewarding high scholastic attainment among freshman men in institutions of higher learning. Founded at the University of Illinois in 1923, the fraternity admitted The George Washington University to its active chapters in 1929. There are now one hundred and thirty-two active chapters.

Present officers are: Felix M. Wysocki—President, Lee S. Dryden—Vice-President, David S. Fishback—Secretary, and Richard Epstein—Treasurer. Professor William L. Turner of the Department of English is the Faculty Advisor.

Education Council

The Education Council, the student council for the School of Education, works to establish effective communication between students and faculty. During its short life it has initiated several valuable programs which include an Education Council newsletter, "Guidelines," a guide for pre-education and education majors, files containing up to date teaching certificate requirements in the U.S., and has authored a "credit/non-credit" option available to students in the School of Education. During the spring semester plans have been made to review the undergraduate curriculum, to assess its strengths and weaknesses as viewed by students, faculty and recent graduates teaching in the metropolitan area, and to present their findings for faculty consideration.

ROW ONE: Francine King—Secretary, Maureen Brown, Jill Connor—President, Gwen Potter, Susan Shucker, Mrs. Rose Paper, Mrs. Lois N. The Beta Chapter of Phi Delta Gamma is a National Fraternity for outstanding graduate women in all professions.

It was founded in 1922 by four University of Maryland students "to encourage a high standard of education for business women and to afford an opportunity for mutual helpfulness."

National Conventions are held biennially for delegates and individual members to meet professionally, to exchange ideas, and to give reports to carry on Fraternity business. There are now 17 active chapters, and 2 active alumnae chapters in Washington, D. C.

Sigma Alpha Eta

George Washington's national speech honorary, Sigma Alpha Eta, opens its key, or initiated, membership to those above average students majoring in clinical or research oriented speech or hearing pathology. The honorary works to create and stimulate interest among college students toward professional opportunities through learning experiences not offered in the formal class structure. Sigma Alpha Eta also provides situations for social and professional fellowship in which students and faculty can work together, as well as to aid in public relations with other college departments and those local organizations interested in learning about speech pathology and audiology.

Delphi

Delphi, George Washington University's sorority women's honorary, was founded in 1930 to recognize outstanding sorority women on campus. Each of fourteen chapters elects three of its members to Delphi membership for their leadership and service to their sorority.

Delphi is an active University organization especially in the fall. Delphi plays a very important role in rush. It assists the Panhellenic Council in organizing and coordinating the overall rush program. The most important function of Delphi is to provide counselling services during the membership selection period.

Gate and Key, the fraternity man's honorary, has incredible esprit de corps. The leaders of the Greek system get together to create a pan-Greek spirit found nowhere else on campus. Meetings are great; parties are fantastic; and initiation is out of the picture. Gate and Key is a meeting of not only of Greek, but also campus leaders. Presidents and other officers of many organizations fill Gate and Key's membership rolls. Look for the men in tuxedos at Homecoming and I.F.C. That's Gate and Key.

Sigma Tau is a national engineering honorary fraternity. Its purpose is not only to give recognition, but to combine the efforts of those student leaders of S.E.A.S. that have proven themselves scholastically, practically and sociably, i.e. those qualities which are related to the promise of professional attainment.

Its members must be at least a Junior and rank in the top third of their respective class. They must obtain the endorsement of at least three active members of the S.E.A.S. Faculty while receiving no negative vote from any Faculty member.

Tau Beta Pi

Jan Friedlander—Secretary, Harry Kuhn—Treasurer, William Lemeszewsky—Vice-President, Ed Murray—President, John Cavanaugh—Engineer's Council Representative, Sethu Sekhar, Martin Myers—Corresponding Secretary. Faculty Advisor—Dr. Raymond Fox.

Tau Beta Pi, national honorary fraternity, was founded in 1885 to recognize outstanding engineers when Phi Beta Kappa limited its membership to outstanding scholars in liberal arts. Members are required to be in the top one-fifth of their senior class or the top one-eighth of their junior class and to be of exemplary character. Its purpose is to recognize those undergraduates and alumnae in the field of engineering who have conferred honor upon their alma mater.

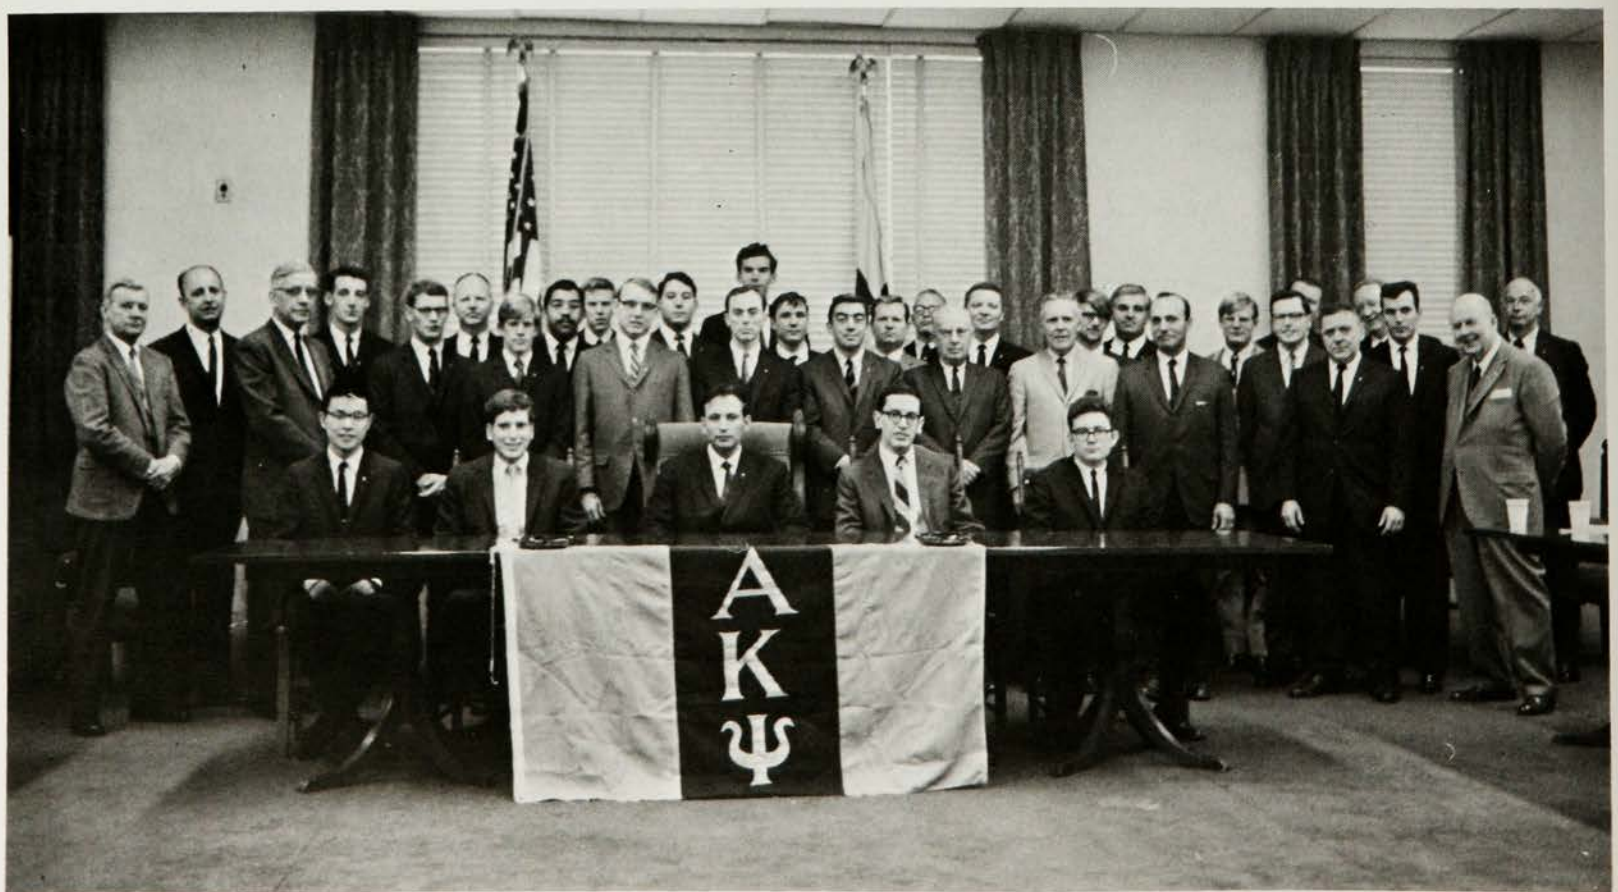

Alpha Kappa Psi

Beta Mu Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi is the only professional business fraternity on campus. Its objectives are educating the public to appreciate and demand high ideals in business; fostering scientific research in business; furthering the individual welfare of its members; and promoting courses leading to degrees in commerce, finance, and accounts. To achieve these ends, Beta Mu sponsors a guest speaker series, field trips, service projects to aid the school and the community, social gatherings to establish faculty-student rapport, vocational and career conferences, student aid programs, and research projects.

Since its establishment at G.W. on May 6, 1933, the Chapter has initiated over 500 members—many of whom are leaders in business, government, and academic circles. Its active members include undergraduate, graduate, and non-degree students, as well as twenty-five faculty members, two department heads, five deans, and such notables as Chairman of the Board of Trustees E. K. Morris and President Lloyd H. Elliot.

Officers: Daniel Lee—Treasurer, Robert Nager—Vice President, Daniel Strelsky—President, Robert Fink—Director of Publicity, Daniel Sonnino—Secretary. Advisors: Philip D. Grub and George F. Conner.

The Crew Team recorded another winning season as it won four out of six races during the regular season. Edged by Georgetown as they took second place in the D.C. area championships, the rowers also distinguished themselves by placing seventh in the Dad Vail Regatta — the small college championship.

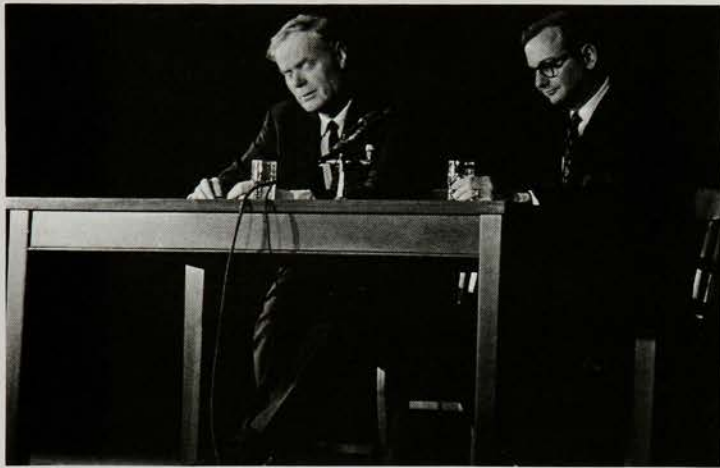

Rowing in the varsity shell were Calvin James, Dennis Mullin, Jack Francher, Bob Foote, Len Foote, Carroll Potter, Ronald Roos, and coxswain Craig Sullivan, a two year letterman. All return this year except Francher, and they will be joined by last years freshman crew, who also finished second in the D.C. area championships. Coach Harvey Montgomery feels there will be decided improvement — maybe enough to reverse the outcome of the G.W.-Georgetown rivalry.

GW's Weekend Warriors

INTRAMURAL

Once again Delta Tau Delta overpowered all opposition in capturing the intramural football championship of all three leagues.

In Sunday A League, the Delts won the show-down game with SAE 6-0, by virtue of a dazzling 55 yard punt return by Bill Hoffer. Considering the number of former GW football players in the game, it was hard to believe it was only an intramural contest.

In Sunday B League, another victory over SAE again clinched the title for the Delts. Mike Hart passed to Walt Oberlander and Dave Satter kicked a 40 yard field goal to provide the winning points.

The Saturday B League championship was tied going into the last weekend, DTD and AEPI having played to a scoreless tie the week before. However, Phi Sigma Delta played the spoiler role as they tied AEPI, while the Delts polished off SAE 13-0. Thus Delta Tau Delta did most of the winning, but many "weekend warriors" shared in the excitement, disappointment and competition of Intramural football at GW.

Soccer to 'em

Bad breaks — narrow defeats — disputed calls — all these thwarted the soccer team's efforts to produce a winning season in its third year as a varsity sport at GW. Still GW finished with a 5-7 record against a tough schedule of Southern Conference and Washington area opponents.

The Buff started the season in great style winning 2 of 3 matches, including a 2-1 victory over American. Offensive power house Roland Romain scored the winning goal with 2:30 remaining in the final period.

However, two consecutive hard luck defeats at the hands of William and Mary and West Virginia hurt the Colonials morale, and their record. The loss to Georgetown was especially hard to fathom, as the winning goal was scored with 40 seconds left on a disputed penalty goal. A late season surge started with the Gallaudet game (Homecoming) which the Buff won 7-1. Romain led the barrage with 3 goals, followed by Joe Vassaf with 2, and freshmen Frederico Ramos and George Edeline scored one apiece. Catholic was the next victim, as Romain scored both goals in a 2-1 triumph. In the finale against unbeaten Loyola, another disputed penalty kick led to GW's downfall, as they lost 3-1.

Coach Tom White should feel secure in the fact that half the 34 man roster are freshmen and sophomores, many of them experienced players. GW is building a soccer tradition slowly but surely.

GW Takes Extramural Title

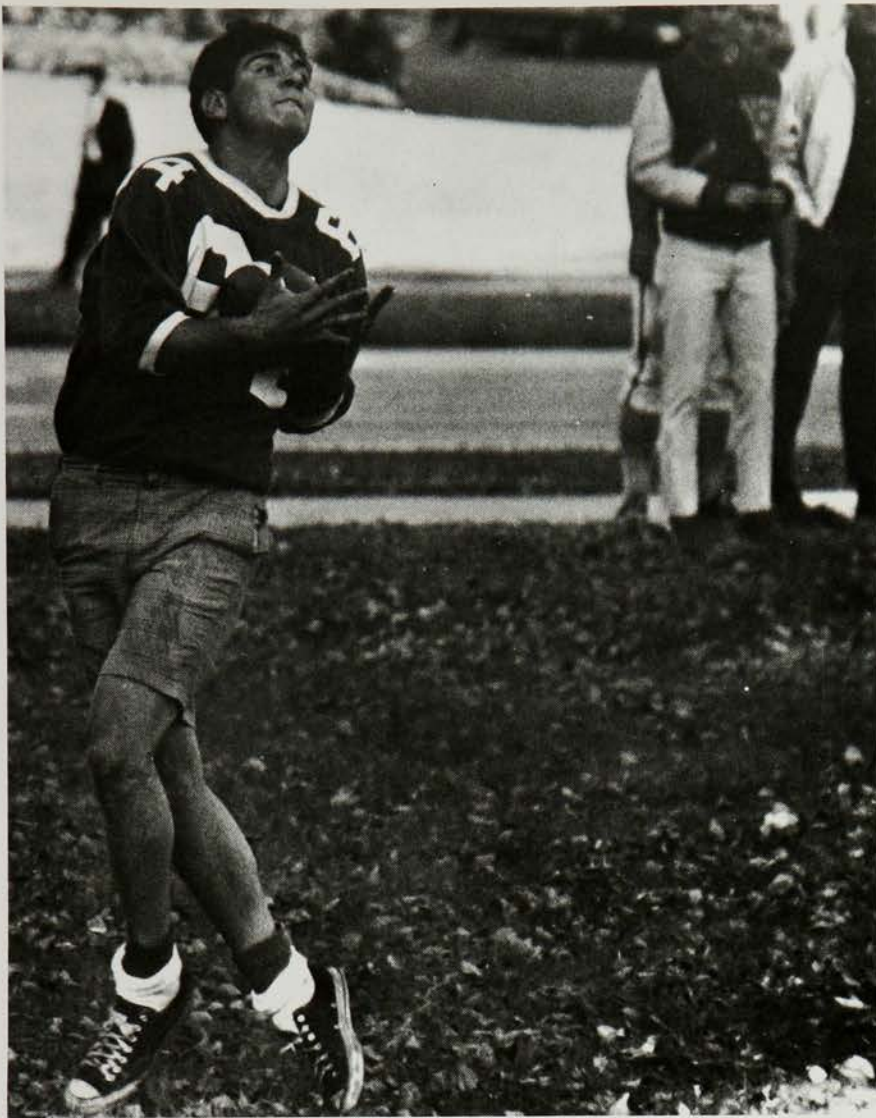

The fall of 1967 brought no football, but it did see a new sports event come into existence at GW. The Metropolitan Intercollegiate Extramural Sports Day took place on and around the Concrete Campus. Gallaudet, Catholic, Howard, American, and Maryland, along with GW, participated in this inter-collegiate competition for the unheralded "weekend warrior."

To many people's surprise and delight, the Colonials won top honors in two of the three scheduled events, thus capturing the overall trophy. In basketball, the Buff rolled over Howard, Gallaudet, and Catholic, taking the finale 52-46. Ray Hunter led all GW scorers, totaling 59 points in the three games.

The volleyball championship was achieved through a combination of great teamwork and spiking of Sheck Chin, considered by everyone to be the best player in the tournament. After trouncing Catholic, the Buff split the first two games with a tough Gallaudet team, and were behind 13-10 in the third game. At this point, the Colonials ran off five straight points climaxed by a spike by Chin to seal the victory. Only in football were GW's forces bested, and it took an overpowering Maryland team to do it. The Terps edged the Colonials 8-0 in a semi-final game, then proceeded to maul Catholic 30-0 in the finals. GW had won its opening game over Howard 6-0, scoring on a pass to Rich Kaplan from Dave Hood.

It was great fun; not enough spectators turned out; yet the Extramural Week-end should be part of future athletic competition.

Buff Defeat George Mason In Homecoming Rugby 11-0

Many people would ask — what is the Rugby Club? Or better yet, what is Rugby? Rugby is played with 15 men to a team, 8 forwards and 7 backs. The ball looks like a fat football, and is advanced down the field by lateral passes. A 3 point goal is scored by crossing the end line; penalty kicks and conversions also put points on the scoreboard. The players wear no protective padding, and may be tackled when they possess the ball.

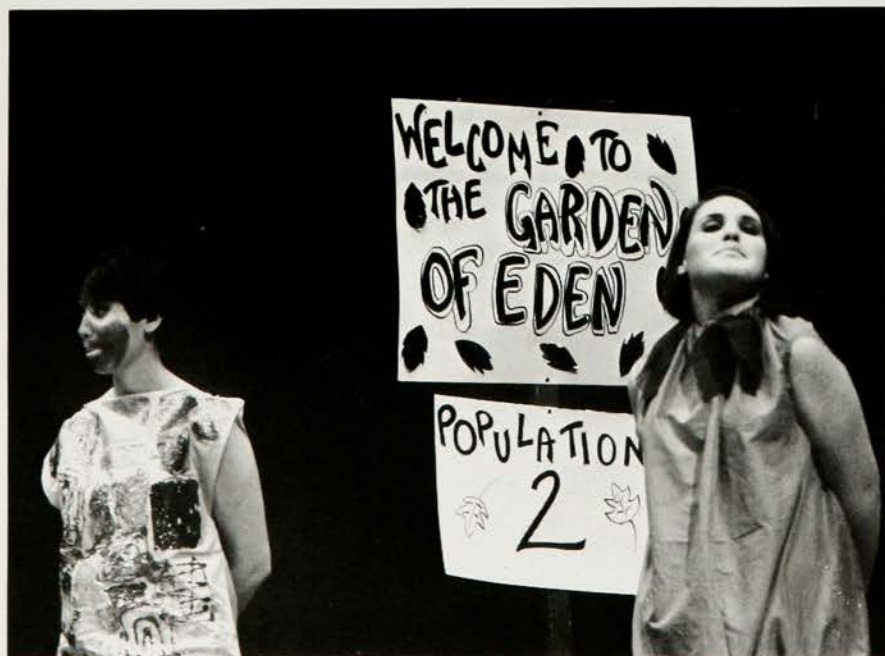

GW's Rugby Club plays a variety of inter-collegiate teams, clubs, D. C. competitors. The players themselves are as varied as the competition. They include Tom Metz, former football star who just began to master the game toward the end of the season; Tony Coates, geology professor who is just as effective on the field as in the classroom, Rick Rhodhamel, whose electrifying dashes down the field often wound up tallying points for the Buff; and Bob Schmidt, as potent a rugby forward as he was a defensive back in D.C. stadium. This collection of athletic prowess won a few contests during the season, as could be expected. Highlights included a 30-0 victory over George Mason, and a double victory over Maryland.

GW Basketball—Hope for the Future After

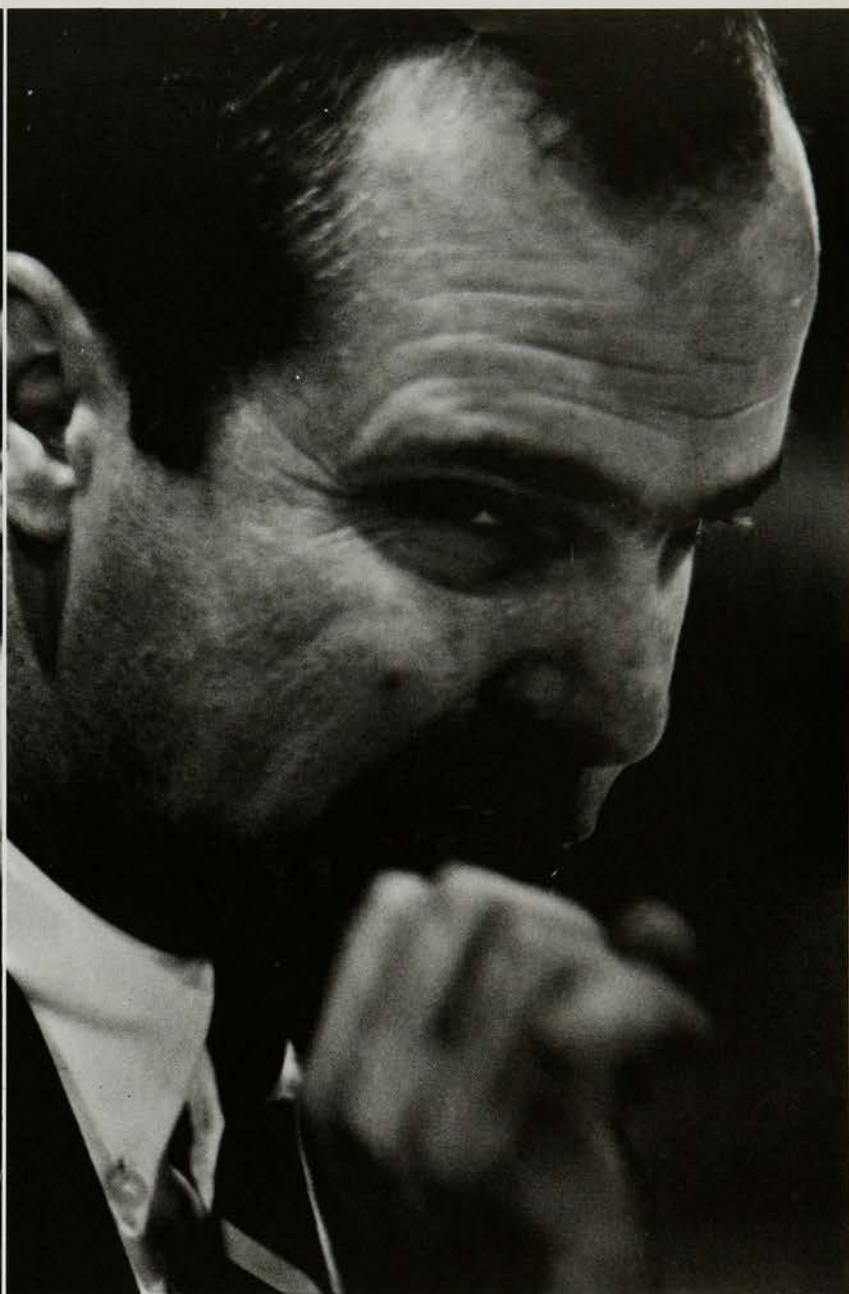

A 5-19 record doesn't sound too impressive, but the 1967-68 basketball season could prove to be a landmark in GW sports history.

The season started slowly for rookie coach Wayne Dobbs. He inherited a team which had but one returning player of much varsity experience, plus a few junior college transfers and the remnants of a mediocre freshman team. After crushing defeats at the hands of Syracuse and Maryland, Colonial fans were already looking forward to next year when All-American prospect Bob Tallent would be eligible along with a powerful freshman squad including Bob's brother Mike Tallent.

The fans may have given up, but the Buff certainly didn't. Victory number one came against Montana in the consolation game of the Evansville classic. After several heartbreaking losses, including a quadruple overtime defeat at the hands of East Carolina, GW notched their first conference victory, 70-66 over William & Mary. The next week they upset VMI 60-59, in the most exciting contest of the season. Garland Pinkston hit a jump shot with two seconds left to snatch victory out of defeat.

That the Colonials had vastly improved, there can be no doubt. Roger Strong was by then a consistent threat both as a scorer and rebounder.

A Frustrating First Season for Wayne Dobbs

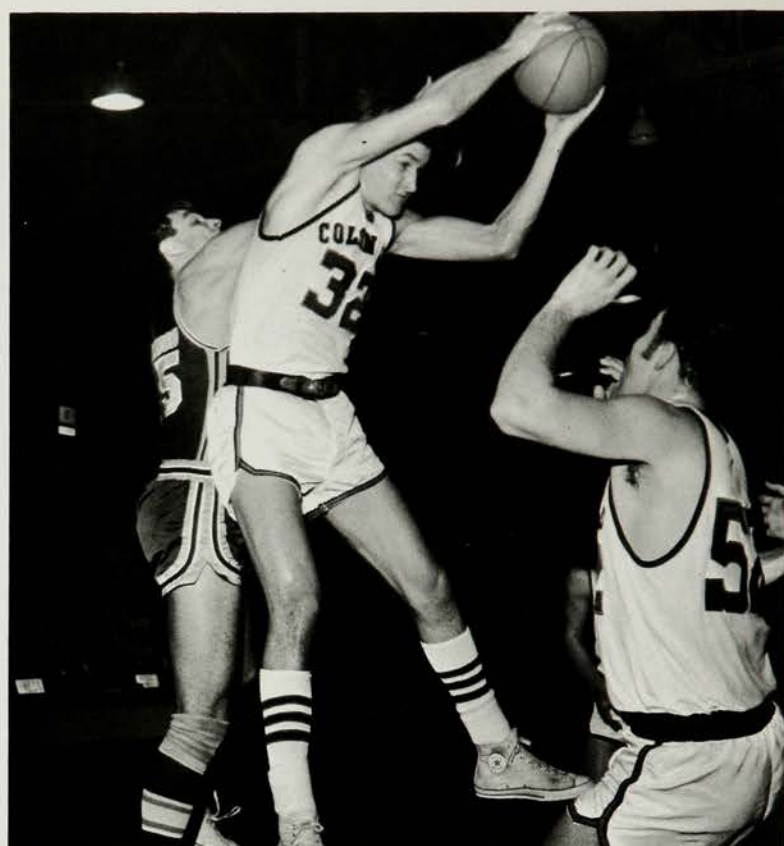

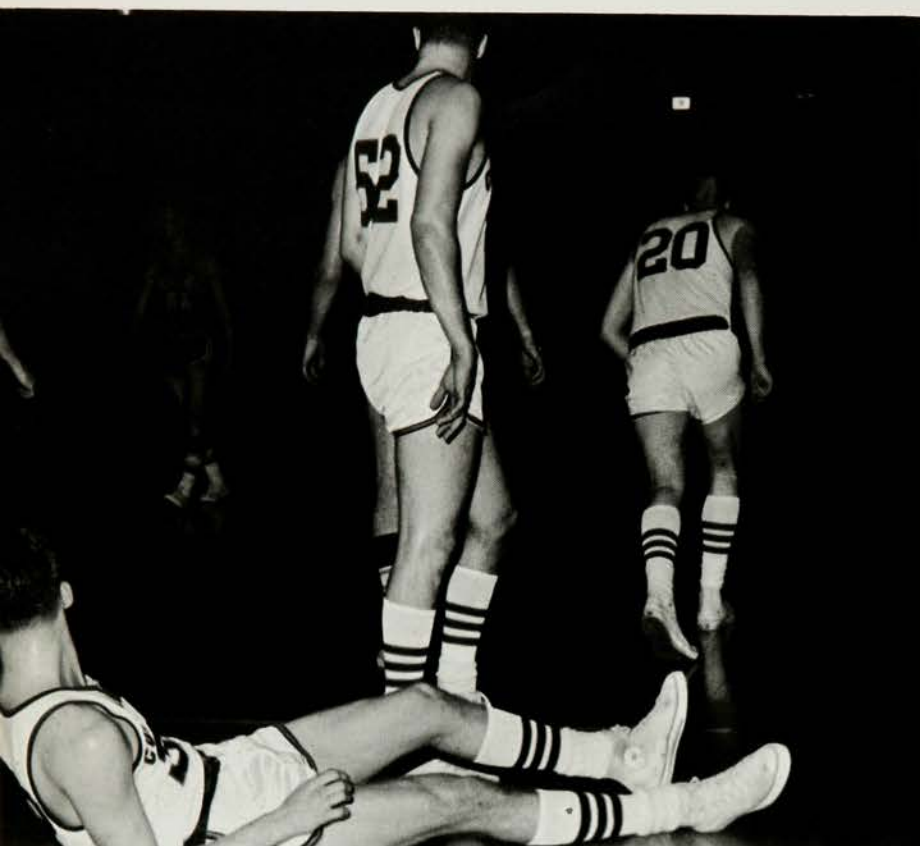

Garland Pinkston hit his classic jump shot from anywhere on the court. After a shaky start, guards Steve Loveless and Bob Dennis combined to form an effective backcourt combination. But an effective big man was needed if the Colonials were to salvage any of their last four games, three of them with teams in the top twenty. Into this void stepped a new Francis Mooney, suddenly instilled with the determination to do what he had been expected to do all year: rebound. His second half rebounds led the Colonials to an astounding 70-66 triumph over 17th ranked Fordham. As Fordham's coach put it, "We were expecting a doormat and found a snakepit."

Mooney again led the Buff to victory on George Washington's Birthday, as GW won this traditional clash with Georgetown for the fifth consecutive year. Francis received the game ball for hauling down 16 rebounds and blocking many shots.

Mike Judy, Jeff DeLong and Mickey Sullivan are the only graduating seniors on this year's squad. Coach Dobbs, anticipating a big season next year, has recruited all across the nation looking for the extra ball player that could mean the difference between good and great. GW will be a team to be reckoned with next year.

Lacrosse

Founded by Harold Sparks five years ago, the club has been growing in size and strength over the past five seasons. Last year's 3-7 record is deceiving. Many of the games were played against varsity teams that have a great tradition for lacrosse, such as Duke, Notre Dame, and Washington and Lee. The club attained its victories at the hands of Georgetown, Bullis Prep, and Washington Lacrosse Club. Many of the key players were back this year, with high hopes of improving on last year's record. They include: goalie, Ron Blaustein; defensemen, Anson Perina, Ralph Fletcher and Josh Howell; attackers, Billy Sims, Ed Perl, and John Cowan; mid-field, Ken Merin, Jim Isom, Bill Maloney, and John Bacon.

As mentioned before the club is working towards varsity status, but it needs student support. The game itself is exciting; lacrosse combines elements of ice hockey, soccer, football, and rugby. The action is fast and furious, providing an excellent spectator sport.

Derby Day

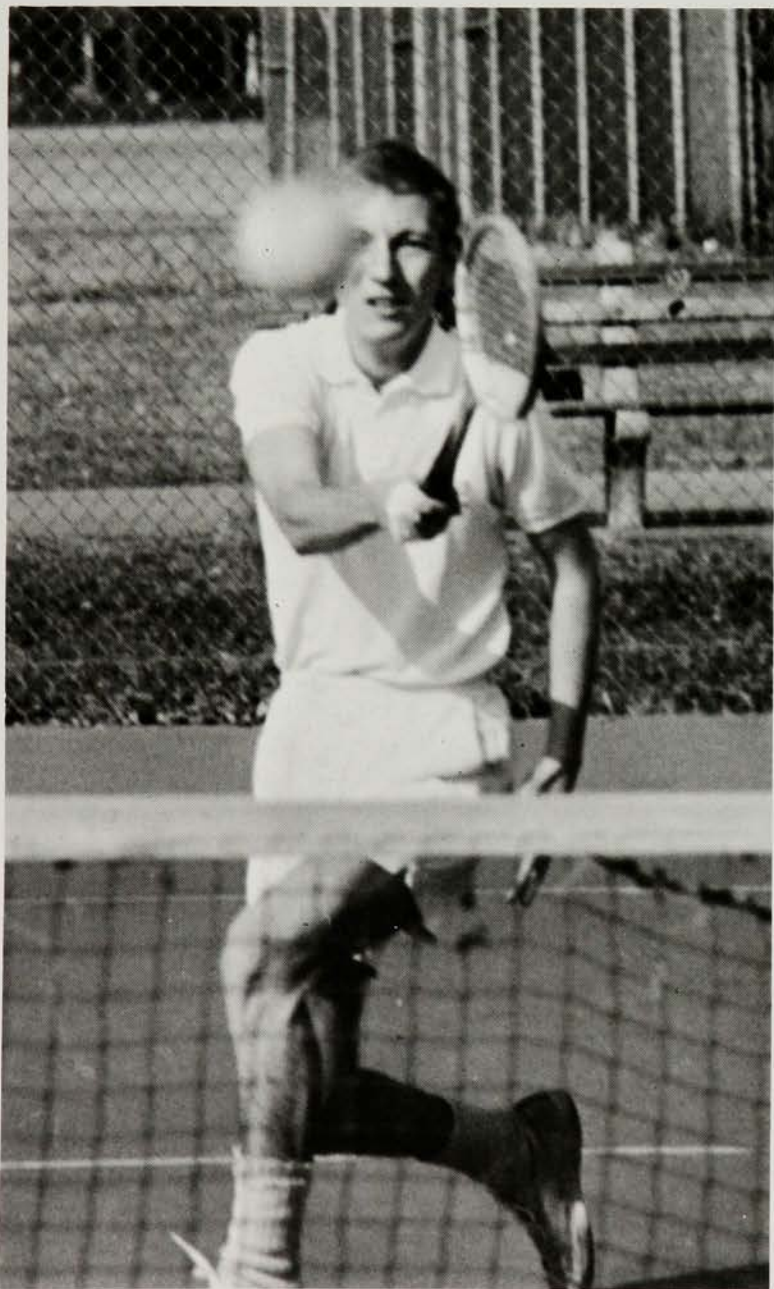

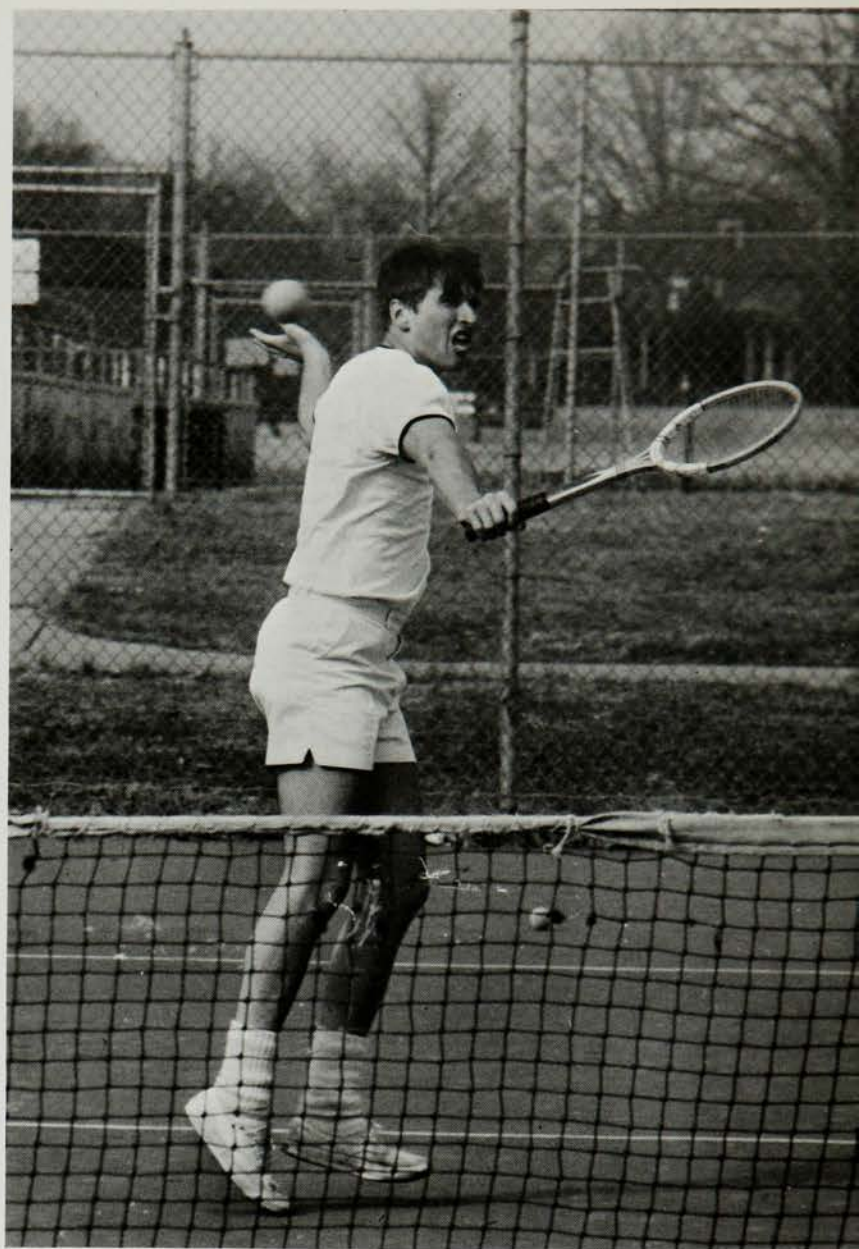

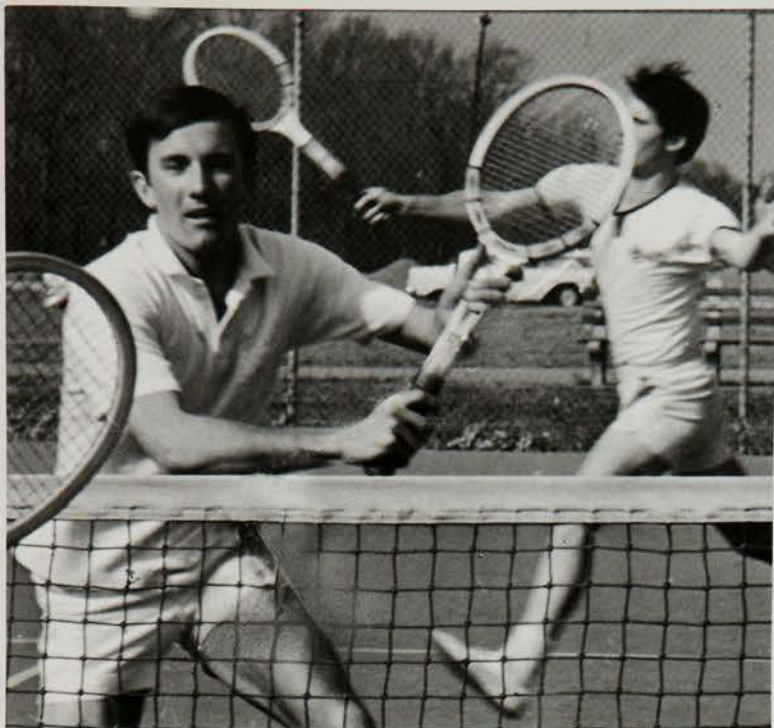

Tennis

Continuing a long tradition of winning tennis at GW, the Colonial Netmen placed second in the Southern Conference and finished the season with an 11-6 record over-all.

After a slow start, GW scored a 9-0 victory over American and then proceeded to win the next eight matches. In addition to A.U., they also blanked William & Mary and VMI. Entering the Southern Conference Tournament in second place, the Buff narrowly missed upsetting defending title holder Davidson.

The Colonials lost only Tom Morgan who was first man and Tim Taylor through graduation. Returnees include letterman Ken Ferris, who won third singles in the Southern Conference Tournament. Other returning lettermen are Ray Jones, Bobby Morgan, and Terry Denbow. Freshman Steve Legum is expected to fill one of the open positions.

Coach Bill Shreve once again will head the netmen, and expects an even better season than last. The next Southern Conference Tournament could result in a Colonial victory, the ninth in the past 11 years.

The Big Three

Golf

Bobby Bowers

Lou Rubino

The linksters once again compiled a winning season, finishing with a 7-5-1 record, including five victories in a row. Led by seniors Bobby Bowers and Lou Rubino, the Colonials finished 4th in the Southern Conference tournament. Bowers finished second in individual play in the field of 63 golfers. Other lettermen included Jim Galvin, Tim Conner, Ed Berkin, Rich Kaplan, Dick Sacks and Bernie Williams.

In spite of the fact that only Galvin returned this year, Coach Bob Faris expects the total strength of the squad to be greater than last year's team. Freshmen Bill Klossner, Kent Keith, Jeff Clasper, and Dave Marks all are among our top point-getters this season.

Jim Galvin

Colonial golfers placed second in a 36-hole tournament at the University of Maryland last fall. In addition to George Washington and the host team Maryland, the field included Georgetown and American University. Each team entered 10 men.

Senior Jim Galvin, only returning letterman on the squad, was second in individual competition. He shot two consecutive 72's and missed winning medalist honors by one stroke. The rest of the squad did quite well, especially, freshmen Kent Keith and Bill Klossner.

Buff Baseball Blue

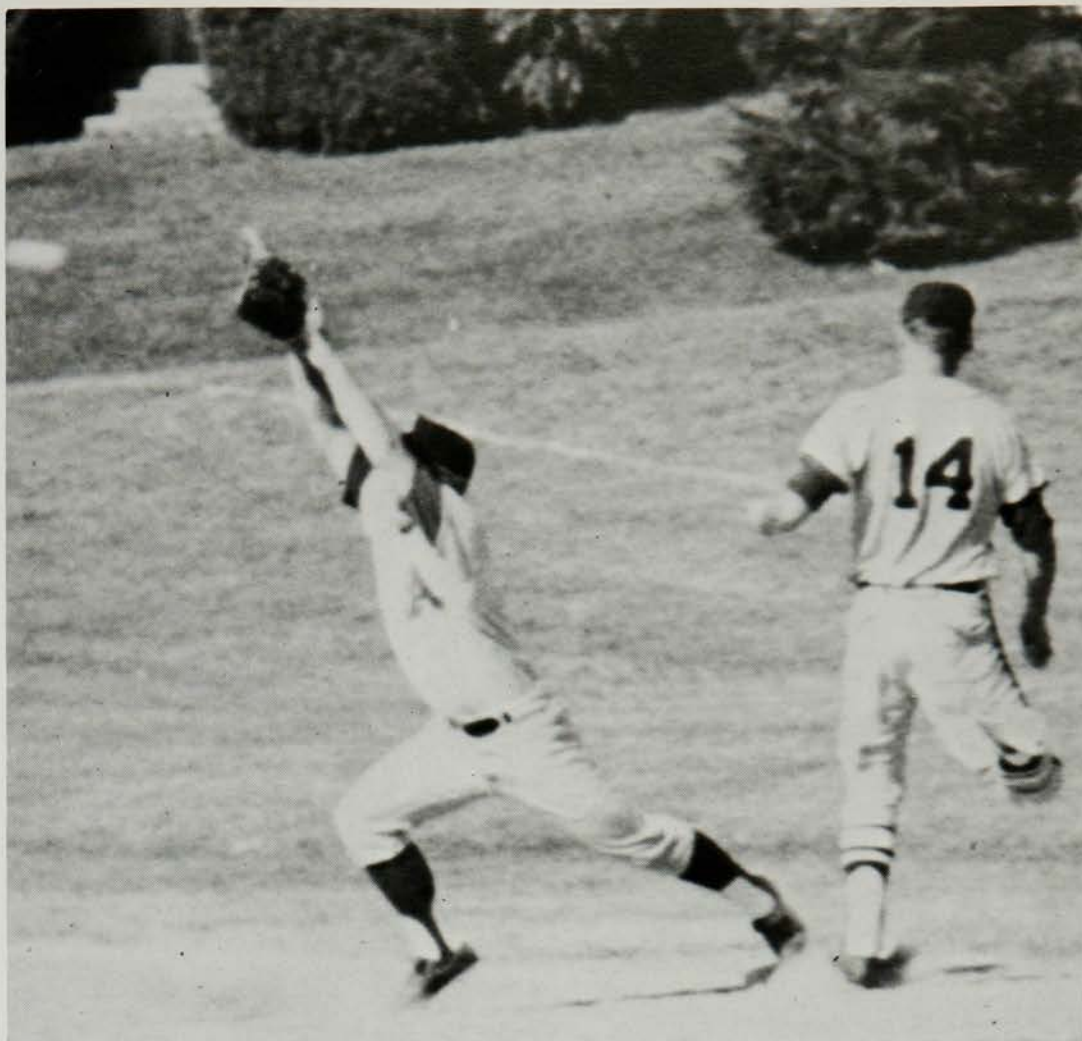

Individual excellence highlighted the baseball scene, as the Colonials posted a 6-13 record in Coach Steve Korchek's initial season. Short-stop Joe Lalli led GW hitters with a sparkling .417 average, and led the nation in stolen bases, with 21. Lalli was voted to the All-Southern Conference team, and was the first Colonial to be named to the Southern District All-Star team.

Other outstanding performances were turned in by catcher Jimmy Snyder, another All-Conference choice, who hit .303 and outfielder Gary Brain, who hit .314 and drove in 17 runs.

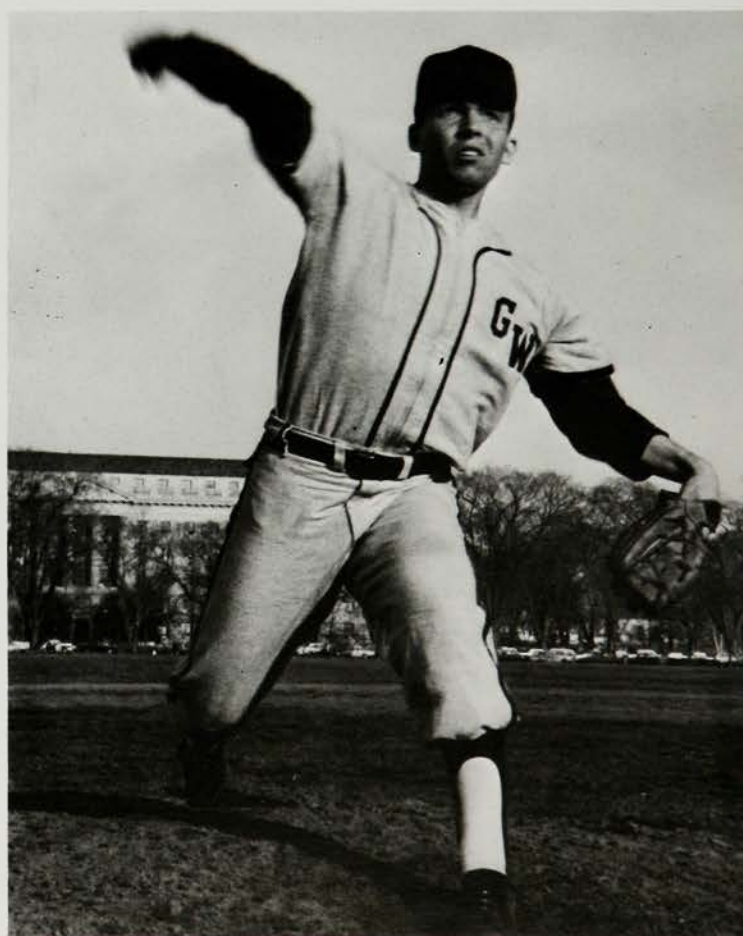

In addition, Ned Scherer had a .341 average and Dave Sollenberger, a .321. Pitcher Bill Pacella, who appeared in ten games, compiled a fine 1.27 E.R.A. in posting a 4-5 record. Thanks to a change in Southern Conference rules that now allows freshmen to compete in varsity competition, the Colonials were improved over last season. Freshman Hank Bunnell was particularly outstanding during the fall season, pitching a one hit shut-out against Navy in one of his victories.

1968 Cherry Tree Queen

Mary-Helen Markley

Chosen by
The Honorable
Hubert H. Humphrey

THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

February 23, 1968

Dear Miss Gray:

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to select the 1968 Cherry Tree Queen. Each of the girls in the pictures submitted to me is pretty enough to be a queen in her own right.

What a happy experience it was to look at the pictures of these lovely young ladies. I enjoyed it even though I experienced considerable difficulty in making the selection.

I simply could not make a decision.

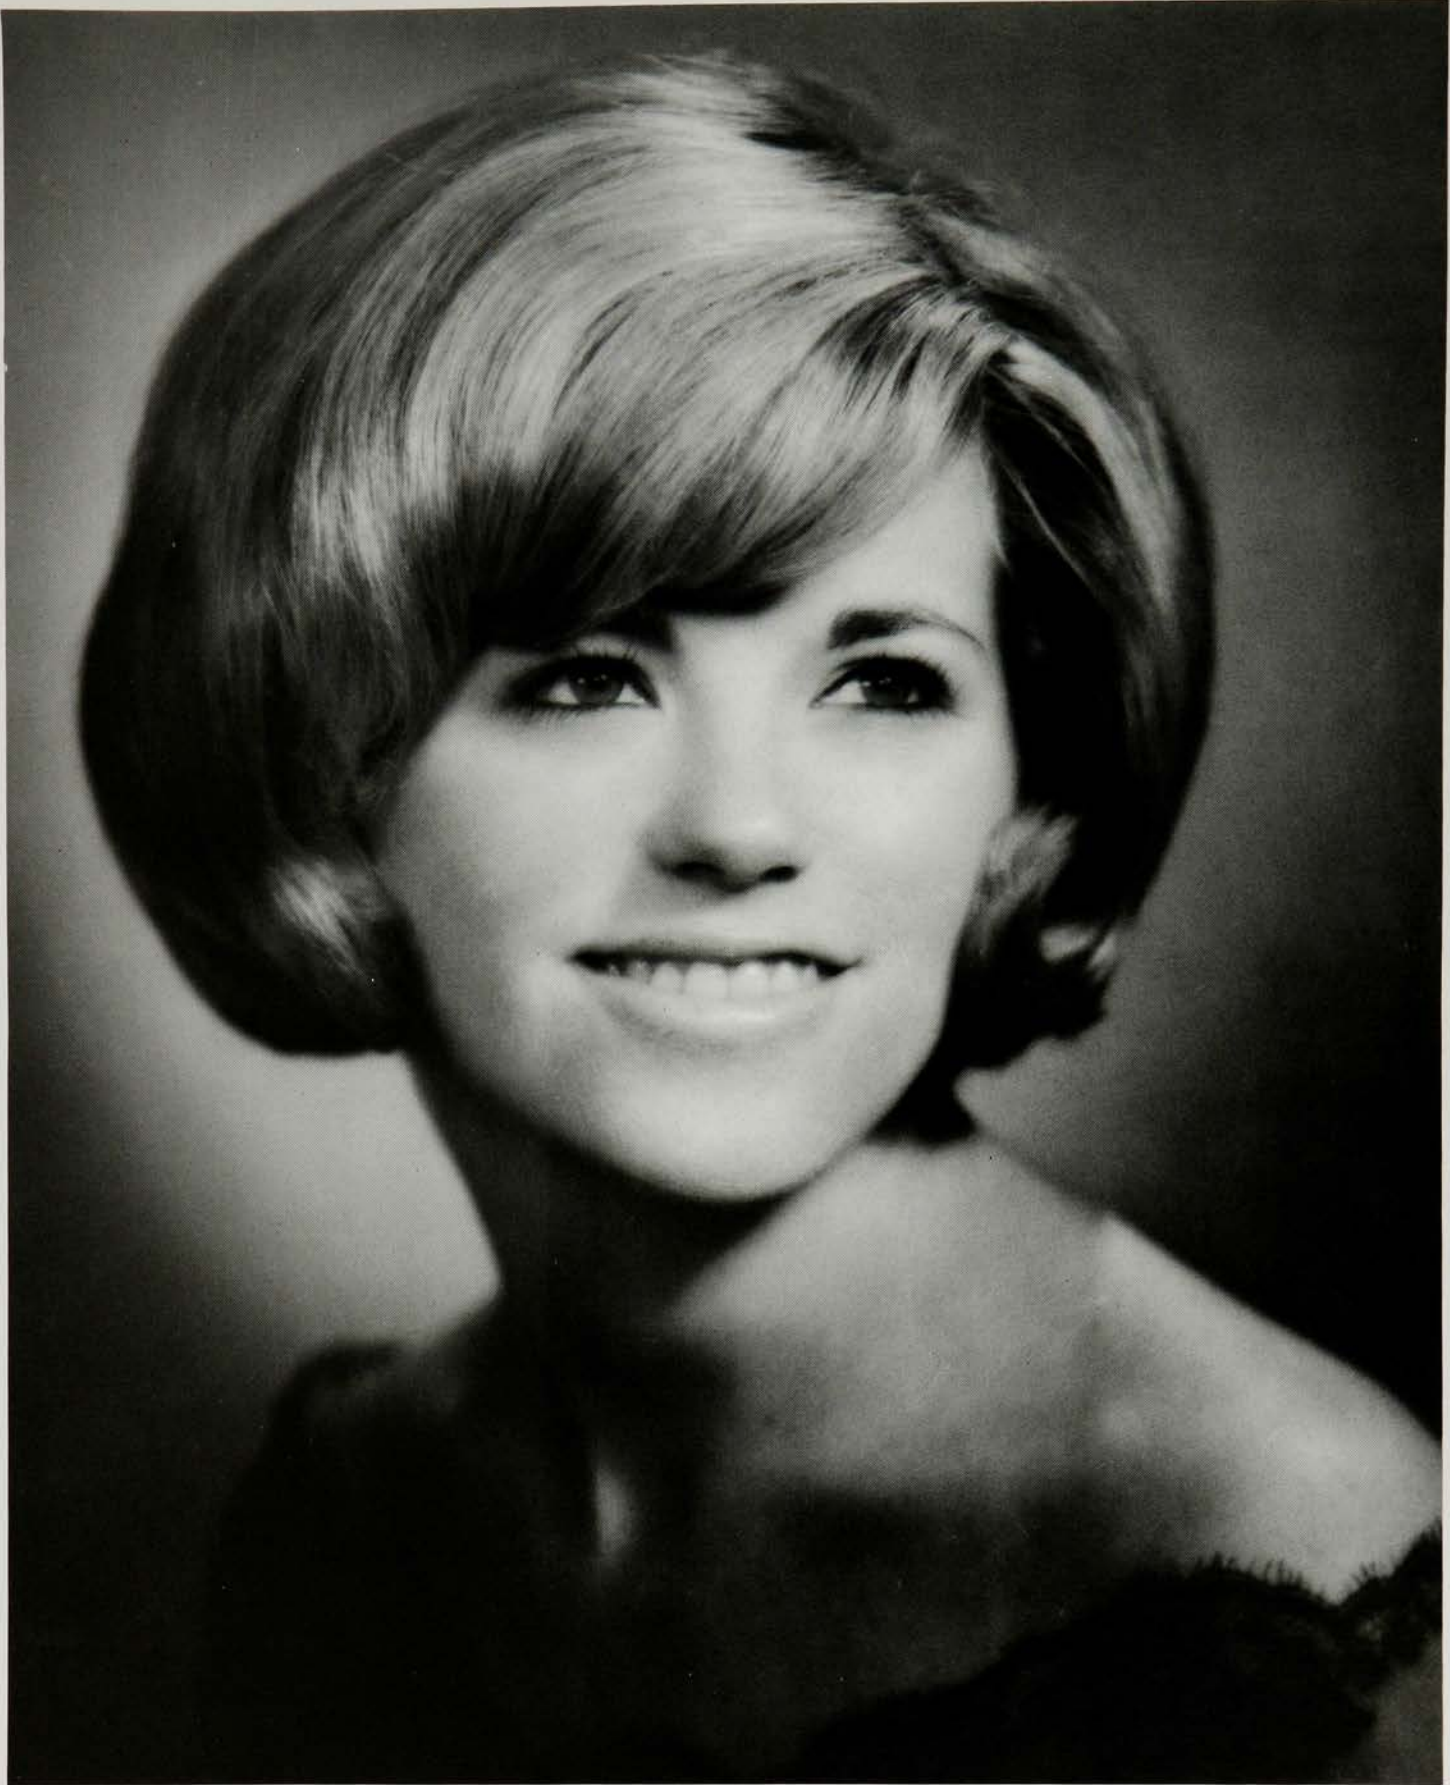

Therefore, I chose the queen in somewhat the same manner as the Cherry Blossom Queen is selected. I asked my secretary to write the name of each girl on a piece of paper and to put the names in a hat. I then drew a name, knowing that my choice had to be a good one.

My congratulations to Miss Mary Helen Markley, the 1968 Cherry Tree Queen. And my very best wishes to the other girls who made my assignment such a challenging one.

Sincerely,

Hubert H. Humphrey

Seniors

Senior Citations

This year, the Cherry Tree institutes a new award, the Senior Citation, designed to honor a small number of Seniors who have made truly genuine contributions to the University. Through the combined efforts of a student committee and a faculty committee, aided by letters of recommendation from faculty and administration members as well as personal interviews, eleven finalists were selected. The Cherry Tree wishes to express its appreciation to these outstanding Seniors.

BERL MARTIN BRECHNER

As a journalism major, Berl has devoted his time and energies to the improvement of a variety of student publications. Editor-in-Chief of the Hatchet, Berl has also served by working on the library, humor magazine, and modified semester committees of Student Council. He contributed to the Potomac, served on the University Publications Committee, and was Vice-President of GW's chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, the National Journalism Fraternity. Through his photographic artistry, he has helped enrich the University community. Outside the journalistic world he was a member of the crew team, Old Men, and a novice debater. Berl received a Student Council Certificate of Appreciation.

MARIA ANTHONY HARRIS

Maria's diverse interests and ceaseless energy have lifted school spirit in a variety of activities on campus. Besides her work with Homecoming, she has served as Chairman of the May Day Follies and Co-chairman of Spring Weekend. Through her work as Treasurer, Secretary, and finally Co-chairman of Booster Board, Maria has inspired a university interest and involvement in the student body. For her efforts the Student Council has awarded her three Certificates of Appreciation. Maria was also elected to Sigma Alpha Eta, the Speech and Hearing Honorary.

TOVA MORRIS INDRITZ

Vitally concerned with academic affairs, Tova worked as a dormitory representative to Student Council to institute the pass-fail system for upperclassmen. She further represented student interests on the University Center Committee, which met with University administrators and architects. On the Freshman Orientation Committee and on the Executive Board of Big Sis, Tova helped incoming freshmen to adjust to college life. Outside the GW community, she led a Junior Village Girl Scout troop and a Community Mental Health Center project, working through SERVE. A member of Alpha Kappa Delta Sociology Honorary, Tova was also elected to Tassels, Mortarboard and Phi Beta Kappa.

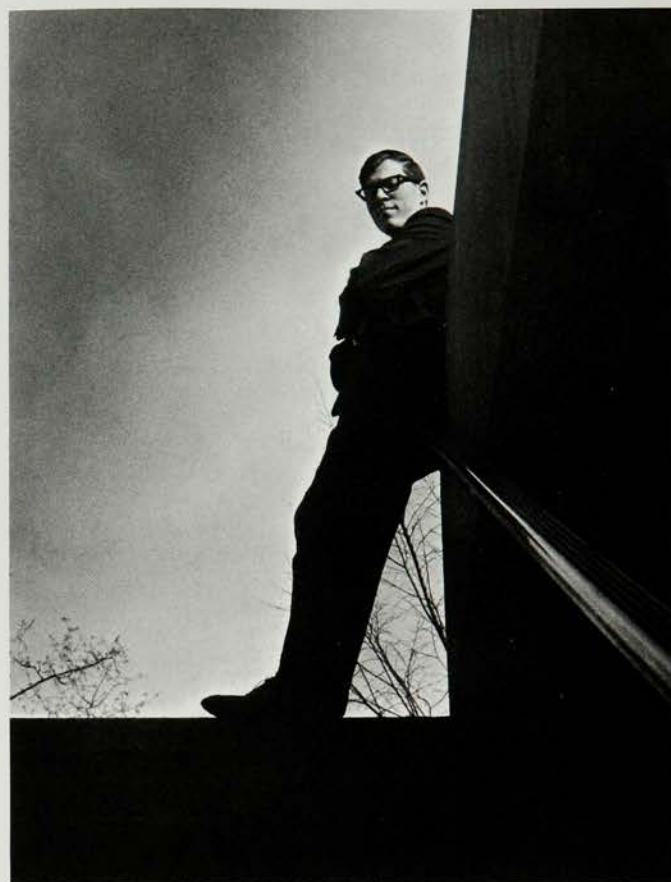

Dave's activities in both the University and the Washington communities have been as impressive as they are extensive. A charter member of Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity, he has served as President for two years. He participated in the Student Recruitment Program, the Arlie Career Conference, and the Academic Committee. For the past two years Dave has worked with Cerebral Palsy Scout Troop 330 as Scoutmaster, a role which has given him a great deal of gratification in exchange for understanding, patience and devoted work. Dave holds a Kemper Foundation Scholarship and is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, Order of Scarlet, and Omicron Delta Epsilon, Economics Honorary.

ROBIN KAYE

Working through student government, Robin has added new dimensions to the role and responsibilities of students at GW. Under his leadership as Freshman Director, the first Advance Summer Registration program and numerous innovations in GW's orientation program were established. His drive and imagination created the structure through which student government greatly increased its effectiveness. As President of the student body, he led students to an involvement in national collegiate issues such as selective service, peace demonstrations, and civil rights. He was appointed to the Student Life Committee, and elected to Omicron Delta Kappa. Robin strengthened the channels of communication and decision-making between students, their administration and their government.

DAVID CHARLES JORDAN

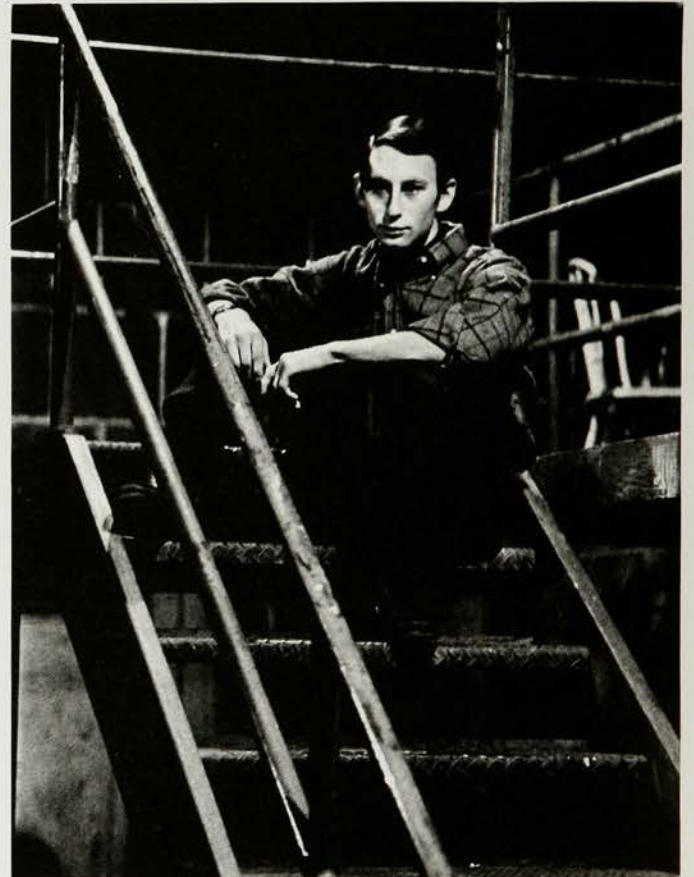

DIANNA MARIA KNIGHT

Dianna's athletic talent and enthusiasm have given impetus to women's athletics at GW. As President of the Women's Recreation Association for two years, she greatly expanded its scope to include such innovations as embassy tours and theatre parties. She has been active in diverse aspects of the recreational program, serving as Chairman of the Slimnastics Club and Manager of the Riding Club. Working in an administrative capacity, Dianna was Secretary of the Physical Education Major Council. Her work as a HATCHET reporter helped to inform students of the new programs initiated by the WRA. She represented our region as Convention Chairman for the Athletic and Recreation Federation of College Women. For her contributions, Dianna received the WRA Outstanding Service Award, and the Columbian Women's Service Award.

MELVILLE ROTHSCHILD MACKLER

A delightful person on stage as well as off, Mel displayed his versatility as an actor in roles from Eugene Gant in "Look Homeward, Angel" to Charley in "Charley's Aunt". As capable as he was of enchanting children as Rumpelstiltskin, he also met the challenge of playing seven characters in "Spoon River Anthology". Mel was President of both the University Players and the National Collegiate Players. In the Washington Theatre Tournament he received the Maude Howell Award as the Best Actor.

LINDA LU MOORE

Linda's imagination and creativity coupled with her qualities of leadership have been invaluable to the University community. Her energies have been felt in divergent areas of student life through her chairmanships of the Homecoming Queen Committee and Panhellenic Council Sing, and through her work supporting the Peace Corps. She was chosen co-chairman of the Women's Leadership Conference and to the Alumnae-Student Leaders Conference. A major area of her concern has been University publications. A member of the University Publications Committee, she was Editor-in-Chief of the Student Directory and Editor-in-Chief of the Cherry Tree.

Variety has marked Christy's role at George Washington. Despite her endless commitments, she has always been eager to help wherever she is needed. She was very active in such service groups as Booster Board and Tassels, and was named Chairman of GW's Cultural Foundation Committee. Perhaps her most obvious contributions have been through her work for two years on the Student Council and the Student Life Committee. As the Council's Vice-President, she has done much to increase the co-operative interaction between the members, and thus the effectiveness of the group. She was elected to Delphi and Mortarboard and was selected for Phi Beta Kappa.

CHRISTINE LOUISE MURPHY

CHARLES NATHAN ORY

Charlie's active concern for the University has been evident throughout his years here. As Lower Columbian Representative to the Student Council, he initiated the Student Advisory program for Lower Columbian College. He was later chosen as a delegate to the Intercollegiate Council composed of nineteen universities and colleges in the Washington area. His wholehearted participation has made him an invaluable member of various committees. He served on the Academic Evaluation Committee, the Homecoming Floats and Parades Committee, and was Chairman of the Modified Semester Committee. As Sub-editor of the Hatchet and a member of the Cherry Tree staff, Charlie has also lent his enthusiasm to University publications. He was elected to the Order of Scarlet and Omicron Delta Kappa.

JAMES HAROLD SHULMAN

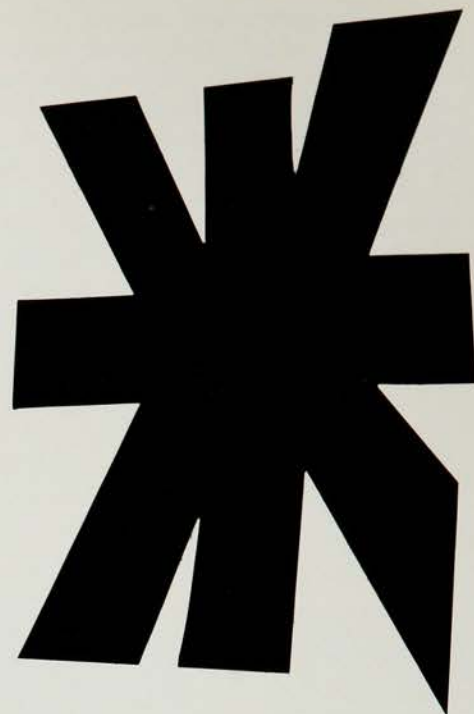

Jim is most at home in governmental activities, ranging from GW's Student Life Committee to the Capitol Hill office of Senator Ribicoff. As President of Delta Phi Epsilon Foreign Service Honorary, he greatly expanded its speaker program to include such prominent figures as Chief of Protocol James Symington and A. K. Aboulmagd of the U.A.R. Jim was a member of the Executive Board of the Student Recruitment Committee, working to attract high-caliber high school students to GW. Moreover, he served the Washington community as Vice-chairman of the Intercollegiate Red Cross and on the Community Service Committee. In recognition of his service to GW, he was elected to the Order of Scarlet and Omicron Delta Kappa.

School of Public and International Affairs

We attempt to provide historical perspective for contemporary problems, to offer theoretical guides for analysis, and to develop in the student a critical, objective attitude, a caution in reaching judgments, and an awareness of the complexity of most issues.
